The Age of Death.
One quarter of the people on the earth die before the age of six, one half before the age of sixteen and only about one person of each 100 born lives to the age of sixty-five.

Daily Thought.
"There are no estrangements so illusive, and yet so insuperable, as those which arise from subtle discords in temperament."—W. H. Malloch, in Harper's.

Peculiar Affliction.
Bernice was out playing when a horse fell. She came in the house much excited and said: "Oh, pa: a horse fell down and can't get up. His leg's unconscious."

Scents Act as Tonics.
According to the latest medical dictum the man or woman who delights in perfumes is well-advised to indulge this taste, providing they don't use heavy odors. It seems that 'eau de Cologne' and any fresh flower scent, has a slightly stimulating effect upon people, and in the early spring the use of perfume helps one to throw off the feeling of lassitude that is so often a characteristic of the season. In the summer, too, or whenever one is tired, the rejuvenating effect of a bath pleasantly perfumed is marked.

Few, Indeed!
Oliver Wendell Holmes wittily said that the first essential in healthy stock is to choose healthy grandparents. Our young people are proud to marry into distinguished and wealthy families, and this is well, for such families usually imply ancestors with powerful traits of character, but how many today can pick out the qualities in their companions that show that they have descended from grandparents who are mentally, morally and physically strong?—Exchange.

Beauty in Bells.
There is a beauty in bells which is fast being lost to the modern world. Since we cannot keep them in use as they were hundreds of years ago, we must try to keep up an interest in those which remain, and learn what we can about one of the chief beauties of the Middle Ages. See how many references to bells can be found in great literature. There is one poem which stands out and which we all should know, "The Bells" by Edgar Allan Poe.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Through Difficulty to Triumph.
Many men owe the grandeur of their lives to their tremendous difficulties.—Spurgeon.

The Stingy Man.

He was known as the stingiest man in town. The Sunday schools were planning a picnic and every one wondered what he would bring. The leader read off the menu and the different members offered to bring this or that. Then one young man said as he didn't have anyone to cook for him, he would bring the coffee. Then the stingy man spoke up and said: "I will bring the water for the coffee."

The Wise Man.

The wise man must ponder on the right path in the silence of his own heart, and when found take it, though the whole multitude brayed at him with its many heads, which most probably they would—for a time.—"Conversations with Carlyle" by Sir Charles Gavan Duffy, K. C. M. G.

The First Museum.

The first museum was part of the palace of Alexandria, where learned men were maintained at the public cost. Just as eminent public servants were in the Prytaneum at Athens. Its foundation is attributed to Ptolemy Philadelphus about 280 B. C.

Magnetism Arranges Nails.

A machine that by magnetism arranges nails in parallel layers for packing is the device of a Swiss inventor.

Banish Unhappy Thoughts.

If you wish to attract friends and to do your best work, keep your mind filled with sunshine, with beauty and truth, with cheerful and uplifting thoughts; bury everything that makes you unhappy and discordant, everything that cramps your freedom and worries you. Bury it before it buries you. Adopt the sun-dial's motto: "I record none but hours of sunshine."—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

Coal in Saskatchewan.

The coal deposit at Lampman, Sask., Canada, is believed to be one of the best of its kind in the world, and one of the greatest assets of the province, according to the investigators who recently made an examination of the location. They estimated that there are 32,000,000 tons of coal in the two and three-quarter sections of land in which the coal is located.—Scientific American.

Fires 1,200 Years Old.

There are fires in the Zoroastrian churches of Bombay that have not been allowed to go out since they were brought from Persia 1,200 years ago.

Friends No Longer Needed.

Why is it that after a man has carried out his future he begins to cut his best friends?—Dallas News.

World's Largest Opal.

Proclaimed as the largest uncut precious stone in the world, an enormous, absolutely flawless black opal, recently discovered in the United States, is now in the possession of a government official in Washington. The gem contains approximately 21 cubic inches and weighs 2,572.332 carats. It is valued at $125,000 by the owners. The famous Viennese opal, which was without an equal until this specimen was found, weighed 1,658.927 carats.

Banish Doubt and Fear.

Thoughts of doubt and fear never accomplish anything and never can. They always lead to failure. Purpose, energy, power to do, and all strong thoughts cease when doubt and fear creep in. The will to do springs from the knowledge that we can do.—Allen.

Alsatian Petroleum Wells.

Alsatian petroleum wells have been worked for 180 years. The deposits are now the only ones in the world to be worked by shafts.

Rhodes Missed Fortune.

Cecil Rhodes spent $450,000 drilling for oil in Mexico and gave it up as a nonpaying streak, or a freak.

Petting Plants.

In repotting a plant put a layer of cinders in the bottom for drainage.
